

Article 9 – Joint Arrangements and Shared Services

Joint Arrangements

9.01 Arrangements to promote Well-Being

The Council, in order to promote the economic, social or environmental well-being of its area, may:

- (i) enter into arrangements or agreements with any person or body;
- (ii) co-operate with, or facilitate or co-ordinate the activities of any person or body; and
- (iii) exercise on behalf of that person or body any functions of that person or body.

9.02 Joint Arrangements

- (a) The Council may establish joint arrangements with one or more local authorities and/or their Executives to exercise functions in any of the participating authorities, or advise the Council. Such arrangements may involve the appointment of a joint committee with these other local authorities.
- (b) Details of any joint arrangements including any delegations to joint committees will be found in the Council's scheme of delegation in Part 3 of this Constitution.

9.03 Access to information

- (a) The Access to Information Rules in Part 4 of this Constitution apply.
- (b) If the joint committee contains members who are not on the Executive of any participating authority then the access to information rules in Part VA of the Local Government Act 1972 will apply.

9.04 Delegation to and from other local authorities

- (a) The Council may delegate functions to another local authority or, in certain circumstances, the executive of another local authority.
- (b) The decision whether or not to accept such a delegation from another local authority shall be reserved to the Council meeting

9.05 Contracting out

The Council may contract out to another body or organisation functions which may be exercised by an officer and which are subject to an order under section 70 of the Deregulation and Contracting Out Act 1994, or under contracting arrangements where the Contractor acts as the Council's agent under usual contracting principles, provided there is no delegation of the Council's discretionary decision making.

9.06 Shared Services

The Council currently shares its services with South Hams District Council and has a Collaboration Agreement governing this arrangement. This may include further authorities as approved by the Council.

The Council may, from time to time, appoint one or more Joint Steering Groups (JSG) comprising members from both West Devon Borough Council and South Hams District Council to consider cross-council issues. Any JSG will not be a formal committee arrangement and the JSG may only make recommendations to Council or other council bodies.
